Dear All,

The year 2020 & 2021 has been a provocative but cultivating time due to the Covid-19 pandemic. During this tough time SD College for Women, Moga has matched the pace of time by standing in the face of adversity with an unflinching determination. Although students couldn't attend the college yet teachers tried their best to impart knowledge & insight through online medium. Teachers ensured active engagement among students' academic and co-academic pursuits. The students also brought laurels by showcasing extraordinary performances at National & State level ventures. Manifold activities were organized by the NCC/NSS students with their creativity for contribution to society and their overall development as well.

I along with my team tried best in handling this tough & challenging time in working on the progress of the students with the expert advice of the worthy management members, experienced and learned persons from various bodies.

We would all walk together to build a better community in times to come.

Thank you.

Dr. (Mrs.) Neena Aneja
Principal
